"The Lindamood-Bell® process changes lives. As a classroom teacher it greatly enhanced my language arts instruction and gave my students who struggled with reading a great deal of success, confidence, and hope. What a beautiful change. I'm so grateful for this program, and the hope it brings for our students and for our education system as a whole. Finally we have a way to meet the needs of our students that delivers as promised, that is completely research driven and is implemented with all the support necessary to ensure success."
